

They Say It's Love (stars)

Cindy Morgan

Stars over my window
I see the silver shimmering down, down, down
Streams out of the moonlights
Empties the sky and fills up the soul.
'Cause I know, yes I know
That it will be you that I am dreaming of
'Cause I heard the stars say
That they know your name and my name
And they say it's love.
So fly or at least imagine
That love is grander than it appears
'Cause somewhere over the moon's glow
There is a sweet word longing to hear, hear, hear
'Cause I know, yes I know
That it will be you that I am dreaming of
'Cause I heard the stars say
That they know your name and my name
And they say it's love.
The moon looks like it's smiling
'Cause maybe it knows more than we all know
And I pray, God if You're looking down now
You see a reflection somewhere here below
Whoa, yeah, yeah, yeah.
