

You'll Be There

Cindy Morgan

You were there when the lightning fell
Crashing down in the blue night
You came in like a raging wind all around
Oh what a sweet light

And in the darkness You were there
And in the good times You were there
So let me say with a prayer

Sweetest Savior who cares
Angels dance in the air
And tell us You'll be there, oh

In the days when the dark and haze gather round
Oh You're the rescue
You breathe again and the sun shines in
Through the clouds, oh how we need You

To be near and to be sovereign
Giving hope to each tomorrow
So we say with a prayer

Oh shadow the lightning
When we are frightened
Oh heavenly light keep shining on me
Shining on me, oh everywhere

Sweetest Savior who cares
Angels dance in the air
You'll be there
