

Angel In Disguise

Cinema Bizarre

I was betrayed
There is no fate
an open sore
I'm in too deep
I can't believe anymore
Will you take what's left of me
Reanimate my trust in fate

Angel in disguise, (you save my soul)
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, (just can't let go)
cause it feels so right
you make my heart go blind

The city sleeps
In empty streets
no glam of hope, (godforsaken)
There's no escape
I'm so afraid of being cold
Just to cope with society

Reanimate my trust in fate

Angel in disguise, (you save my soul)
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, (just can't let go)
cause it feels so right
you make my heart go blind
you save my soul
you make my heart go blind

There is no fate
we've been betrayed
Can you ease my mind?
I'm blind with rage
reanimate
my trust in fate
search deep down inside and heal the pain

Angel in disguise, (you save my soul)
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, (just can't let go)
cause it feels so right
Angel in disguise, (you save my soul)
But you make my heart go blind
My devils rage inside, (just can't let go)
cause it feels so right
you make my heart go blind, (you save my soul)
you make my heart go blind
