

Goodbye Friendship, Hello Heartache

Cinematic Sunrise

Goodbye friendship, hello life I once new
Hello heartache, this second meeting came too soon

I admit it, I still think about those times when I was with you
So I down these memories
Until this bottle turns empty
And I prey the feeling ends

And when I run
Away from you (well you can't hurt me any further)
I know just what to do (you can not help it, you know it's over
)

No more phone calls
Don't tell me that you miss our times
Quit saying sorry
Cause sorry doesn't say enough

I admit it
I still think about those times when I was with you
So I down these memories
Until this bottle turns empty
And I prey the feeling ends

And when I run
Away from you (well you can't hurt me any further)
I know just what to do (you can not help it, you know it's over)
I run away from you
I run away from you
I run away from you

Wasn't it good enough for you?
