

Because I'm Beautiful

Cinerama

And with so many people in the room above
That was the weirdest place that I've ever made love
I was so sure you were trying to impress
That my heart stopped dead when you slipped out?

Slipped right out of your dress
I knew that you would say yes
Yeah, what if we'd been caught?
I never gave it a thought!

Everybody wants to know
How every party seems to become my show
They ask me why my life is never dull
I just say: "Because?"

"Because I'm beautiful?"
Oh I'm sure there's no man you can't pull
But that was just a joke!
I saw his face when you spoke

And when the conversation turns to sex
You always say something no one expects

And that's exactly why I love you
That's why I can't get enough of you
You're unconventional but it's not intentional and that's the greatest thing about you
You're a premium bohemian and I couldn't live one day without you

So beautiful!
I'm sure there's no girl you can't pull
But that was just a joke!
Well I saw her face when you spoke

And when the conversation turns to sex
You always say something no one expects

And that's exactly why I love you
That's why I can't get enough of you
You're unconventional but it's not intentional and that's the greatest thing about you
You're a premium bohemian and I couldn't live one day without you

And that's exactly why I love you
That's why I can't get enough of you
You're unconventional but it's not intentional and that's the greatest thing about you
You're a premium bohemian and I couldn't live one day without you
