

Lazarus

Circa Survive

Anything that happened when I was young it came so measly now all of those things are haunting me and nothing will calm

I won't be offended if no one sees I just wanna know what that'll mean

When I'm alone I make believe that I'm in a different time and place where nobody wants to know my name and no one will recognize my face

Anything that I did way back when it seems so long ago Might as well have all been by accident
I've nothing left to show

I won't be offended if no one stays I'll just blame it all on my old age

When I'm alone I make believe that
nobody wants to know my name and no one will recognize my face

2am, I'm thinking about how lucky I've been
I need to take a moment to myself 6am, I'm thinking about how lonely I've been
I need to take a moment to myself
