

The Luck Has Gone

Circa Waves

I was only asking if you'd walk with me tonight
But we're [?], a straight line for a smile
Did I leave you too long now? Did I tie my tie too late?
I got no time on my hands but I got a lot on my plate

So forget it
You got a lot to learn
You got a lot to learn

The luck is gone
It left me
So I wait my turn
Yeah I wait my turn

Shake me up and take me through everything you see
'Cause Friday night will wake me if it leaves me in one piece
Did I leave you too long now? Did I tie my tie too late?
And I'm a million miles away from the things I got to say

So forget it
You got a lot to learn
You got a lot to learn

The luck is gone
So I wait my turn
Yeah I wait my turn

So forget it
You got a lot to learn
You got a lot to learn

The luck is gone
So I wait my turn
Yeah I wait my turn
