

Without You

Circa Waves

Yeah, I'm finally coming up,
Finally getting some,
Thank god for home.

So, shit food and sleeping pills,
Cheap drinks and cheaper thrills,
Oh pour me, pour me.

And I and I,
I will lead this parade,
And I will travel for days
to get to you.

And I,
I'll never forget your name,
Lonely days feel the same,
Without you,
Without you.

Yeah I'm, I'm kind sick and tired,
Of all these white lies,
Just tell me straight.

And fake, fake a crooked smile,
Every once in a while,
Is quite enough.

And I and I,
Yeah I will lead this parade,
And I will travel for days
to get to you.

And I,
I'll never forget your name,
Lonely days feel the same,
Without you.

And all of this was never meant for me.
And I'd bite my tongue but I'm afraid to bleed.
And all of this was never meant for me.
And I'd bite my tongue but I'm afraid to bleed.
And everything is weighing down on me, now I see.

And I and I,
Yeah I will lead this parade,
And I will travel for days
to get to you.

And I,
I'll never forget your name,
Lonely days feel the same,
Without you,
Without you.

Without you.
Without you.
Without you.
