

it's not so bad when you think about it it's not so bad things could be much worse what about that man the guy who drove all the way to boston he needed a kidney he was on the news
of all the papers
he was so famous they let him go
then he died
they came after his money his wife and kids
all his pets
all those debts

it's important to have little things like that
to compare your life with
yeah life with

and what about the lady who went all that way to ethiopia to become a missionary they beat her to death while she was preaching what about the guy who saw the tarzan movies on his way home he tried to swing on a high voltage wire killed him right there on the spot
