Rats of Reality

Circle Jerks

fading vision of a life unlived you don't regret a single thing you did don't wanna push the button don't wanna be dead just got to feed the creature inside your head no no no you got no brains in that thick skull the rats of reality have eaten them all one more hit down the left field wall can't see what's real or fantasy at all still have your imorals but they're hidden today it doesn't matter ,your brains in decay

[chorus]

fought the real ones, illusions too so depressed, don't know what to do forget about angels , devils as well there's only you and all the rats in hell

[chorus]
