I couldn't get enough of her

She's weighin' on my mind and it won't let up I couldn't get enough of her She's out on the town and she's all dressed up I couldn't get enough of her She walked into the room and the place lit up I couldn't get enough of her Distance is lifting me up I couldn't get enough of her love I couldn't get enough of her Here's a song for you I play From all of my life, from all of my days Life is short but the summer is long And we could get together a lot before the fall And when you get near, close enough to hear, my mind just settles The thoughts just clear And I could touch you right And I could rush you right and Them walls gonna fall like the full moon-light Yeah Yeah She's weighin' on my mind and it won't let up I couldn't get enough of her She's out on the town and she's all dressed up I couldn't get enough of her She walked into the room and the place lit up I couldn't get enough of her Distance is lifting me up I couldn't get enough of her love I couldn't get enough of her Here's a song for you I play From all of my life, from all of my days Life is short but the summer is long And we could get together a lot before the fall And when you get near, close enough to hear, my mind just settles The thoughts just clear And I could touch you right And I could rush you right and Them walls gonna fall like the full moon-light Yeah Yeah She's weighin' on my mind and it won't let up I couldn't get enough of her She's out on the town and she's all dressed up I couldn't get enough of her She walked into the room and the place lit up I couldn't get enough of her Distance is lifting me up I couldn't get enough of her love I couldn't get enough of her Yeah Yeah She's weighin' on my mind and it won't let up I couldn't get enough of her She's out on the town and she's all dressed up
