

They're putting on a show
And they expect you to follow blindly
So clap along to the beat
But what they sell and take their words lightly

This is the age of doing what you're told by those in control

Your idols soon will fall
Their reign is temporary
Deceit can only fool the weak
Only true legends will live on

It's time to break the mold
Loosen the grip that's crippling your mind
Don't give them what they want
Take back what there is left of your pride

This is the age of standing up for yourself
Thinking on your own and sending conformity to hell

Your idols soon will fall
Their reign is temporary
Deceit can only fool the weak
Only true legends will live on

Your idols soon will fall
Their reign is temporary
Deceit can only fool the weak
Only true legends will live on

Only true legends will live on
Only true legends will live on

You're not fooling us
We can see right through you
You're not fooling us
We can see right through you

Your idols soon will fall
Their reign is temporary
Deceit can only fool the weak
Only true legends will live...

Your idols soon will fall
Their reign is temporary
Deceit can only fool the weak
Only true legends will live on

Your idols soon will fall
Their reign is temporary
Deceit can only fool the weak
Only true legends will live on

Only true legends will live on
