

Leaving Here

City Lights

I've had enough of being trapped
In the town I'm from
Every day is the same
And I feel like I know everyone
I think I'll go someplace
Where the palm trees grow
And soak in the zero percent chance of snow
I won't be back

Sell my old clothes
I'm off to heaven
Tell my friends and family
I'm leaving here for good this time

I'm headed west
I won't forget to write
To let all my old friends know
I'm doing just fine
I'm seeing everything
I've always wanted to see
I don't think there's a chance in hell
I'll ever move back east
I won't be back

Sell my old clothes
I'm off to heaven
Tell my friends and family
I'm leaving here for good
Sell my old clothes
I'm off to heaven
Tell my friends and family
I'm leaving here for good this time

I can't stay in one place
Can't let this time go to waste
I only have one life to live
I might as well make the best of it
While I can

I'm off to heaven

Sell my old clothes
I'm off to heaven
Tell my friends and family
I'm leaving here for good
Sell my old clothes
I'm off to heaven
Tell my friends and family
I'm leaving here for good this time

I'm leaving here for good this time
