

Make A Sound

City Lights

Remove your clothes
To let me know:
I'm not the only one in the picture;
I'm not the only one in your picture.

Don't you make a sound.
She said, "Who are you to run your mouth like that?"
Here's the last time you'll be caught with your hands on
Pieces of him you shouldn't know.

If all I'm good for is a one night stand, then
Why are you the one I stand up for?
I'm good, I swear I'm good, I know I'm good
But why can't I see straight?

Remove your clothes
To let me know:
I'm not the only one in the picture;
I'm not the only one in your picture.

You're not needed here to hold my hand;
I've got bigger and better things to place them on.
I'm good, I swear I'm good, I know I'm good
Too bad he can't relate.

Remove your clothes
To let me know:
I'm not the only one in the picture;
I'm not the only one in your picture.

When I said "Wake up,"
I meant "Wake up right now!"
Get the hell in the car and drive!"
She said, "I'm so drunk, I don't think I remember how."
It's nights like these that last forever.

When I said "Wake up,"
I meant "Wake up right now!"
Get the hell in the car and drive!"
She said, "I'm so drunk, I don't think I remember how."
It's nights like these that last forever.

So come on, baby just
Remove your clothes (remove your clothes)
To let me know: (to let me know)
I'm not the only one in the picture; (only one)
I'm not the only one in your picture.
