

Can't Wait One Minute More

CIV

Been passed by so many times fed up so long and I'm sick
Sense of pride, got by my side I've got to trust in myself

[Chorus]

I can't wait one minute more
Wait one minute more
Wait one minute more
I can't wait, one minute more)

Don't try to take me there Cause I won't go back
The world passes by as I sit
Count the days 'till your ship comes in
Your ship left, you missed it

[Chorus]

And I'm stillâ?|I'm still waiting
Been let down so many times I got the runaround and I'm pissed
Can't keep me down, I'll take another swing
It's the last chance, that I'll miss

Saving up for a rainy day As the sun went by and I slept
Passes me by, I don't wonder why
That it all make such sense to me
I need room to breathe I work for the goals that I set
Wasted time weighs on my mind
You can bet
I can't wait one minute more
Wait one minute more
I can't wait one minute more
I can't wait one minute, wait one minute

Wait, wait, wait, wait
