

Et Tu Brute

CIV

Not this time, I've never followed you
You got a story, here's how you tell it
I'm soul searching and you don't fucking get it
You should be searching 'cause you've lost your fucking mind

I, I see it clear

Just take one step, kid
Do you think I'm fucking blind? I see it all the time
Now you don't come around and that's just not fair
You don't have the time, well I don't fucking care

I, I see it clear

I think you want to break
I think you want to burn
These bridges that I make
You'd think I fucking learn

You change your mind like the wind blows
Are you on my side? I never know
You speak of glory when you have none
And I'll be here when you're gone

Left me behind
You can't keep me in line
