Quiet In My Town

Civil Twilight

Today I heard that someone left this earth That someone disappeared, left no mark here Today I heard that someone just got up and left himself Lying on the ground Today is, today is Today is quiet in my town Today is, today is Today is quiet in my town Today two boys disappeared without noise And I wish that I was them flying somewhere overhead And tonight in silence, two lovers hate and find One is bored, one is angry

Today is, today is Today is quiet in my town Today is, oh, today is Today is too quiet in my town, ooh Oh, somebody say something, ooh

But neither one of them is right, oh

Today I heard the sound of birds And I wish that I was anywhere but here

Today is, today is Today is quiet in my town Today is, oh, today is Today is too quiet in my town

Today I heard the sound of birds And I wish that I was anywhere but here

It's too quiet, too quiet It's too quite, too quiet It's too quiet, it's too quiet It's just too quiet

It's too quiet, it's too quiet It's too quiet, it's too quiet It's too quiet, it's too quiet

This town, in here, in here, in here It's too quite in my town, oh, yeah, yeah Oh, oh, I sing it out

Today is, today is Today is quiet in my town Today is, today Today is too quiet in my town

Today is, today is Today is quiet in my town
