

On the warm banks
Of the river of life
Men and women gather
With all of their rights

You see those statues
They are men of frozen will
And we're not like them, baby
We will never be still

Take a little dive into the river, baby
I don't mind, I don't mind
Just take a little dive into the river, baby
I don't mind if we never get out
Never get out

If heaven seems far away
Just let your spirit sway
Just let your spirit sway
Just let your spirit

Take a little dive into the river, baby
I don't mind, I don't mind
Just take a little dive into the river, baby
I don't mind if we never get out

Into the river
We've got all this time.

It flows through walls of stone
It flows in between the bone
It has flowed since the divine exchange
It flows forever unchanged

Take a little dive into the river, baby
I don't mind, I don't mind
Just take a little dive into the river, baby
I don't mind if we never get out
Never get out
I wanna never get out, never get out
Never get out
