

Familiar Realm

CKY

With the pressure on, intent is to run,
When you're feeling ineffective and dumb,
You bet it's true, the event is you,

Invaded by a swarm of confliction,
Been penciled, in but never begun,
Infected sense, the insistant one,

If grieving is today, you've entered a familiar realm,
With pesimistic views, you've entered a familiar realm,

Break out and carry on,

If responsibilities are ignored,
Then the penalties will soon be endured,
Potential risks beyond control,

Fortune isn't fame, you've entered a familiar realm,
If they've told you who to be, you've entered a familiar realm,

Break out and carry on,

Invaded by a swarm of confliction,
Been penciled, in but never begun,
Potential risks are beyond control,

If nothings left to say, you've entered a familiar realm,
If they all get in the way, you've entered a familiar realm,

If they've told you who to be, you've entered a familiar realm,
Fortune isn't fame, you've entered a familiar realm
