

Hellions On Parade

CKY

Your fear becomes a prodigy
For a makeshift operation
Devouring until the system's slain

The rage imposed it overflows
Pensive reason slows
And at dawn its on to kill the light of day

You taunt the fraying fabric of a brain that if twists a little more
You'll find demise as hatred has its way
Panic thrives our numbers rise
Don't open your eyes
The rally's closing forcing you at bay

You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it

Establishing your plan again
You think to seal our doom
But there's no room in our agenda for defeat
Defense defies you
Lame tame and humane
And 96 will stop you easily

You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it
Locked in and surrounded
Every heart is pounding

Hellions on parade
Bodies fall by hand and blade
We relish your foundations burning
Destruction on display

Hellions on parade
Swiftiness preys on all delay
Join in this brigade
Be afraid...the hellions on parade

You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it

A city placed on red alert
Collapses to the dirt along with faith and pompous dignity
Comformists crumble to their knees
Stripped of their abilities
Abundant screams
The begging feeble pleas...

You don't want to see this
If you did you'd surely disbelieve it
Locked in and surrounded
Existence is Impounded

Hellions on parade
Bodies fall by hand and blade
We relish your foundations burning

Destruction on display
