

Flaming Hot Cheetos

Clairo

Sometimes I feel like I just wanna go back to my old ways
You're telling me I'm silly
"it's no fun in the old days"
I'm such a romantic
I never remember how things truly happened
I guess you're attractive
Or something

"Live in the moment"
That's what they told me
But what ever happened
To when you would hold me
And hold me
And hold me?

"Girlfriend" or "girl, that's a friend"?
It's easy just to pretend
That we don't have something real

It's just how we feel
We feel
Oh, it's just how we feel
How we feel

I'm feeling something, right?
I'm feeling something, right?
I'm feeling something, right?
I'm feeling something, right?
I'm feeling something, right?
I'm feeling something, right?

I wanna be the one you think about at night
And I wanna be the one that you would put up a fight for
You know that I adore
That even when you're bored
I'd buy you anything and everything I can't afford
