

Losing My Head

Clan of Xymox

Here I lie awake again ,
Rise and shine
Some things will never change
I bide my time
Weekends spent in solitude
I am feeling down
I love you to death
You make me lose my head
I love you to death
You make me lose my head
I've seen nothing of you yet
I 'm wanting to forget
I've seen nothing of you yet
I 'm wanting to forget
Seen nothing of you yet
I 'm wanting to forget
Here it comes in waves again
It's gaining ground
It's more than I can ever bear
It's weighing down
Your absence here surrounds me now
It burns inside
You're born to guide me
Say what you want
I am born to love you
Do what you want
You're born to guide me
Say what you want
I 'm born to love you
Do what you want
You come inside
You make it right
You are the light
When you come inside
