

Under The Wire

Clan of Xymox

So tired, so cold
A story untold
So blind, my fault
To love and to hold
Enough, I'm old
Enough, I'm told

Under the wire
Exposed
Under fire
Reproached

In the morning light
On the edge of time
Here you stand
With all the other minds

Question my love
With tears in your eyes
To you it's a strain
To fall apart

Demons in you
Come into light
Coming into light
Coming into light

I've lost my skull
You touched my soul

Under the wire
Exposed
Under fire
Reproached

Waiting out for me
Waiting after all
We could go on
Cause nothing's ever wrong

One has to see
The reason of the night
One has to see
Our demons in disguise

Time has come
For you to question all
Time has come
For you to end it all
It all, it all...

Under the wire
I fault
Under fire
Once more
