In Search of a Heart

This heart of mine won't keep Or believe in the secret, like the moss on a stone This heart of mine won't beat It just carries itself away These parting times won't break me Deserted times stop running

Ar do chul This form of love won't share Or give in to a feeling with nothing to gain No compromise in time You're so near and yet so far These parting times won't break me Deserted times stop running

Ar do chul And when i turn in silence found What i say won't let you down And when your call, outside my door Ends the searching...
