

Passing Time

Clannad

You can win or lose and be excused
The sudden change of plan
As a reality, it's very clear
But a loser always loses in the end
Always in the end

For a long time now
I'm passing time
Still I know somehow
I'll learn to try
I'm passing time

You may ask for gifts, just anyone
The right
I'm not so sure it's anything at all
For a loser is still losing in the end
Losing in the end

For a long time now
I'm passing time
Still I know somehow
I'll learn to try
I'm passing time

Yes, I am aware of passing time
Without a care in sight
I can feel the changes coming very soon
And a loser won't be losing in the end
Losing in the end

For a long time now
I'm passing time
Still I know somehow
I'll learn to try
I'm passing time

Passing time
Passing time
