Passing Time

You can win or lose and be excused The sudden change of plan As a reality, it's very clear But a loser always loses in the end Always in the end

For a long time now I'm passing time Still I know somehow I'll learn to try I'm passing time

You may ask for gifts, just anyone The right I'm not so sure it's anything at all For a loser is still losing in the end Losing in the end

For a long time now I'm passing time Still I know somehow I'll learn to try I'm passing time

Yes, I am aware of passing time Without a care in sight I can feel the changes coming very soon And a loser won't be losing in the end Losing in the end

For a long time now I'm passing time Still I know somehow I'll learn to try I'm passing time
