

Strange Land

Clannad

Try to tell a knight in gold he's to blame
(Hard to tell your point of view)
A promise made, a dream of hope it's all the same
(Know exactly what to do)
In this strange land
This strange land
Set within the other side my Lionheart
(Everything is on my side)
Death and danger is defied my lover in light
(Death and danger is defied)
In this strange land
This strange land
In this strange land
In strange hands
