

Yesterday, Never

Clap Your Hands Say Yeah

Misunderstood, I'll bet, and you will ask me to answer
what I can't know.
It's safe to say I wasn't with you then,
and it is hard to tell if I am now.
It is hard to tell if I am now.

The scientist tracked the wild beast through the jungle
and straight to your door.
You shot it dead, and you took its head and put it high upon your wall.
With a head upon your wall.

In your article, how did you put it?
You had me 'round your finger, did you?
Microphone, sick spit on it,
make me feel no shame for a moment
Yesterday, yesterday never was.
Yesterday never was.

Yesterday, never.
