

Heart From the Start

Classix Nouveaux

Enclosed in circles we are fated to be,
While I am here, and you are there,
Unwritten pages they will never meet,
On the same plane, or share the pain,
Of the aware.

Heart, from the start, far apart,
Separated and faded,
Heart, from the start, far apart,
For how long have we waited.

And now not everything's so easy,
How can you know, you never go,
What makes as I dream deep inside of me,
I can't explain, I wish again,
It wasn't so.

Heart, from the start, far apart,
Separated and faded,
Heart, from the start, far apart,
For how long have we waited. x2

And through the darkness we are trying to find,
The answers out, where we have doubt,
But no one understands our aims, never mind,
I have no fear, if they don't hear,
And we will shout.

Heart, from the start, far apart,
Separated and faded,
Heart, from the start, far apart,
For how long have we waited.
