Girls get played And guys get played You got me this time but never again Listen! Baby, do you remember how you claimed Back in the... that if I wait a little longer You would give it all to me I'm still here waiting I could tell that youve been played Girl, I love you I honestly love you You don't seem to care Well darling, I swear that you're gonna wish You gonna call me when you're feeling lonely You're going through hell but I wont be there Cause I'll play with a bitch Paybacks a bitch Girl, can't stop reminding you It was me who stood beside you And tears were falling down your face Cause a boy stopped loving you Well, I can't and I was patient Something etween the 2 of us Never seen it, it's just a bit freaky Girl, I love you I honestly love you You don't seem to care Well, darling I swear that you're gonna wish You gonna call me when you're feeling lonely You're going through hell but I wont be there Cause I'll play with a bitch Paybacks a bitch When you see me on the street Please girl don't say, sit next to me If there's a pretty little thing in my arm Please don't say:speak to me You wish you could have it back But don't say:speak to me Don't say:speak to me Don't say:speak to me

Girl, I love you
I honestly love you
But you don't seem to care
Well, darling I swear that you're gonna wish
You gonna call me when you're feeling lonely
You're going through hell but I wont be there
Cause I'll play with a bitch
Paybacks a bitch
