

Your Lies

Claude Kelly

I'm Not Sure I'm Ready To Leave
But I Don't Think It's Safe If I Stay
And The Burden Of Loving You Is Heavy For Me
Yeah (yeah)
But I Just Can't Seem To Turn And Walk Away

'Cause everytime that I feel at home is when I'm lookin in your eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin m e your lies (your lies)
Now I can't tell a lie, it's all a blur, not really sure, if yo u're a blessing or curse
And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin m e your lies (your lies), and I...

Loves been a disaster for me
What started out so beautiful has turned to pain What happened to my happily ever after See I know that it's been over for a while but I can't break aw ay (break away)

'Cause everytime that I feel at home is when I'm lookin in your
eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin m e your lies (your lies)
Now I can't tell a lie, it's all a blur, not really sure, if yo u're a blessing or curse
And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin m e your lies (your lies), and I...

Got me holding on to ya...
Got me confused I don't know what's real or fake Baby now the only thing I'm used ta Everyday, everynight, all the time I hear your lies

'Cause everytime that I feel at home is when I'm lookin in your
eyes (your eyes)
And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin m e your lies (your lies)
Now I can't tell a lie, it's all a blur, not really sure, if yo u're a blessing or curse
And the only truth that I've ever known is when you're tellin m e your lies (your lies)
