

Big Ole Shoulder

Claude King

I got a big ole shoulder to cry on
So bring your big ole heartache to me
Don't go looking for someone else
'Cause this is where you ought to be

This is the first one that you'd cried on
When the last one set you free
I got a big ole shoulder to cry on
So bring your big ole heartache to me

Don't go looking for somebody else to cry to
He may have a big ole shoulder but I'll bet
You'll turn out to be another one he's lied to
And you'll still be looking for someone to help you to forget

So bundle up your sweet love bring it home to me
I got a big ole shoulder to cry on
So bring your big ole heartache to me
