

Sleepwalking

Claw Boys Claw

Does it want you in your hair?
You may ask yourself again
Are your eyes right here - or down at sea
Just wailing on a breeze

Looking frantic to get real
In a one way daily dream
By the end you've done your citywalk
You wonder where you've been

Everyone is sleeping
While the lights are shining bright
Everyone is sleeping - so am I

Did it ever cross your mind
Why you love a lullaby
You can sway and sway - go up and down
You'll never hit the ground

Pull the plug out of this place
Have a sweet pajama day
Before it is too late

Everyone is sleeping
While the lights are shining bright
Girl you got me weeping - never mind
