

Sugarlite Blonde

Claw Boys Claw

Stay away, I don't know where I'm standing, a dead dog, feel al right
I get it on, I need a face to laugh on but that is more of the same everynight
Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
They say my bones are the one understanding, I go down in the r ear
You got me crawling to my heart's surrender
The state of phase you brought me in, you're no good You got me howling at the moon tonight, understood You got me howling at the moon tonight, hear me say You got me howling at the moon tonight, come on babe You got me howling at the moon tonight, just stay and get your way
Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
You're my sugarlite blond
You got me howling at the moon
Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond
You're my sugarlite blond
Stay away, I don't know where I'm standing, a dead dog, feel al
I get it on, I need a face to laugh on but that is more of the
same everynight
You're no good, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blo nd
You're my sugarlite blond
Sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, sugarlite blond, you got me h owling at the moon tonight
You're my sugarlite blond
