

Look What Love Has Done

Clay Aiken

Where once the moon was just a rock spinning in the sky
Where once the stars were only tiny points of light
Now the moon looks like its heavens shining pearl
Now those stars they look like windows into another world.

Look what love has done to me
Look what love has done
There's poetry in all I see
Look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day
My soul is running free
Look what love has done to me

Where once each breath was just a sigh of aching emptiness
Where once I hardly felt the beating in my chest
Now each breath feels like a precious gift of life
Now inside me beat the wings of a thousand butterflies

Look what love has done to me
Look what love has done
This must be how it's meant to be
Look what love has done
Now my heart is dancing through each day
My soul is running free
Look what love has done to me

And I can't tell was that a violin or did you say something
Was that lightning striking where I stand?
Or did you just reach out and take my hand?

Look what love has done to me
Look what love has done
This must be how it's meant to be
Look what love has done
Now my heart is dancing through each day
My soul is running free
Look what love has done
O done to me
Look what love has done to me
