Let Me Take the Heartache (Off Your Hands)

Clay Walker

Once again, he's left you here crying And it hurts me to see him hurt you this way And once again, here I am trying To make the tears disappear from your face for your sake

Let me take that heartache off your hands You've stood more than one heart should stand Don't give up on love till you give me a chance Let me take that heartache off your hands

These shoulders were made for you to cry on If you need them, they're yours any time These arms are yours to try on I'll make sure they fit you just right, they'll hold you tight

Let me take that heartache off your hands You've stood more than one heart should stand Don't give up on love till you give me a chance Let me take that heartache off your hands Don't give up on love till you give me a chance Let me take that heartache off your hands
