

Now I want to tell you things
Only have seen by few
In the miracles

One has read my mind and draw
The life I long to live
And said don't fool yourself now

Discard the greed inside feel light inside
Cause you have known it all along
Listen to your voice inside

Then I spread my wings so high ready to fly
And now I see and feel it all
So I thank you and I thank you

Now I want to tell you things
Only have seen by few
Happens in this world

One has read beyond my mind
Reveal the shame inside
And said let go of ambition

Discard the greed inside you'll feel light inside
Cause you have had it all along
Listen to your voice inside

And I spread my wings so high ready to fly
And now I see and feel it all
So I thank you and I thank you

Discard the greed inside you'll feel light inside
You have had it all
Listen to your voice inside and now
I spread my wings so high ready to fly
And I see and feel it all
I thank you for the gift you gave to me
