

Spinning The World

Clazziquai Project

Hey, you stop
Who you hide beneath
And you
Seem shocked to see me here
More than
What I want to see
(And I was such a fool to trust you)
I was a fool
(And now you lost your words to see me)

I was waiting for you to be
Sorry and love me but then you were
Too, too busy
To cover here, to cover here
The dirt
You'll never
Become what you once promised me to be all this time
It is you, spinning the world
I got to believe

Hey you stop
No more games to play
But then it's me
Who knew
What you are beneath
No words to say
(And I was such a fool to trust you)
I was a fool
(And now you lost your words to see me)

I was waiting for you to be
Sorry and love me but then you were
Too, too busy
To cover here, to cover here
The dirt
You'll never
Become what you once promised me to be all this time
It is you, spinning the world
I got to believe

It seems like I am ready to erase you
It seems like I am ready to erase you

I was waiting for you to be
Sorry and love me but then you were
Too, too busy
To cover here, to cover here
The dirt
You'll never
Become what you once promised me to be all this time
It is you, spinning the world
It is you, spinning the world

(I was waiting for you to say the words)
