Everything Must End

Client

Why do you walk in the dark Do you pray for the the day Can you find a way Can you feel the sunshine Can you see the light Can you live for tomorrow Everything must be right

We can be lovers
We can just be friends
We can be selfish
Everything might end

Are you alive or are you dead on your feet
Can you feel the moment
Can you deal with the pain
Can you feel the sunshine
Can you see the light
Can you hold on forever
You've got nothing to fight

We can be lovers
We can just be friends
We can be selfish
Everything must end
