Lock up your brains, 'cause I'm here again
I'm never bored I'll steal your chord
Ooh zerox machine
Give me a line or a middle eight
I've got the best so I want the rest
Ooh zerox machine

Let's get together before it's too late
Collect up the ideas and duplicate
Filling in the forms send 'em off tonight
And you'll be the owner of the copyright
Of the copyright, of the copyright

Time is off the essence get your ears to the ground
However else can the hits be found
I may look happy, healthy and clean
A dark brown voice and a suit pristine
But behind the smile there is a zerox machine

I'm a zerox machine
