

A Mighty Lonely Man

Cliff Richard

I've thought my life had happiness
Until I felt your warm caress
I've really thought I had it made
Until I met you, then I knew
I've been a mighty lonely man

You touched me with your finger tips
And oh so softly kissed my lips
You said, you showed me paradise
And so I love you, and you thrilled
I've been a mighty lonely man

How truly love, how truly, truly love
How thrill, how very thrill was I
Then like a fool, a foolish, foolish fool
I hurt you and made you cry

Forgive this foolish man, my love
Please say you understand, my love
Return again to my embrace
And say you love me
Till you do
I'll be a mighty lonely man
Till you do
I'll be a mighty lonely man
