

Got a Funny Feeling

Cliff Richard

Well, I've got a funny feelin' that I'm falling in love with you.

Yeah, I've got a funny feeling that I'm falling in love with you.

I just can't wait to see that dream come true.

Yeah, I've got a funny feeling that I'm falling in love with you.

Well my hearts a-going double every time I get a sight on you.

Yeah my hearts a-going double every time I get a sight on you.

Just say that word, and tell me that I'll do.

Coz I've got a funny feeling that I'm falling in love with you.

Yes you're the one

Don't try to run

If it turns out right

I'll hold you tight

When you're in my arms tonight

You'd better be getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love with me.

Yeah, you'd better be getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love with me.

Just make that date, don't be late and you will see.

That you're getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love with me.

(solo)

Yes you're the one

Don't try to run

If it turns out right

I'll hold you tight

When you're in my arms tonight.

You'd better be getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love with me.

Yeah, you'd better be getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love with me.

Just make that date, don't be late and you will see.

That you're getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love

Yeah you're getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love

You'd better be getting a funny feeling that you're falling in love with me.
