

Here I Go Again Loving You

Cliff Richard

Well I know I said this was the end
That from now on we'd just be friends
But then you put your spell on me
And the magic's working I can see
That maybe you know, I can't let you go
There's nothing else I can do

Here I go again, loving you
Loving you, loving you
Here I go again, loving you
Loving you, loving you

I had fooled myself that I was strong
But now I guess you've proved me wrong
For here I am again with you
Doing all the things i shouldn't do

And baby you know, I can't let you go
There's nothing else I can do

Here I go again, loving you
Loving you, loving you
Here I go again, loving you
Loving you, loving you
