

I Will Not Be a Mistake

Cliff Richard

We can still turn back
We can change our minds
No harm done
We can play it safe
And not let our feelings go
But if we fall into this ocean
And it carries us away
You should know

I will not be a mistake
Or something you have to forget
I can be the slightest breeze
That passes through your life
The smile that comes from thinking
Of this rainy night
I'll be a chance you had to take
A heart you had to break
But I will not be a mistake

I can tell you now
That I hope we never
Say goodbye
But sometimes hearts collide
And then move on
You can say that we were foolish
It was reckless, it was weak
But it won't be wrong

Let me love you with all I have
And if we let go then all I ask'

Is to be the slightest breeze
That passes through your life
The smile that comes from thinking
Of this rainy night
I'll be a chance you had to take
A heart you had to break
But I will not be a mistake

You're just moving on
I got nights to remember
After you're gone
