

Left out Again

Cliff Richard

I'm left out again, oh feeling so blue
Wondering what it was, I dear to you
Umm-umm, Left out again and yet it seem
That you are always with me to hold my dream

I-I know little girl, oh I was such a fool
But now I'm lonely, oh so lonely
Can you take pity on me
Left out again, wishing you knew
And if it, if it means anything
I really love you

More I know, I was a fool, little girl how I agree
But now I'm so lonely, oh so lonely
Can you take pity on me
'Cause I'm left out again, wishing you knew
And if it means anything
I really love you

Oh, how I love you, left out again, wishing you knew
Left out again, wishing you knew
