

Living In Harmony

Cliff Richard

It's not funny when you're lonely
It's much better when you're living in harmony
With someone you're really diggin'
And you wanna give it all that you got

Don't wanna make you cry, don't wanna tell you lies
Don't wanna bring you down, don't wanna treat you unkind
Just wanna make you mine and hear your laugh all the time
Don't wanna break this time, I'm telling you why

It's not funny when you're lonely
It's much better when you're living in harmony
With someone you're really diggin'
And you wanna give it all that you got

Things were bad before, so I walked out the door
I guess I'd soon found out what life is all about
Now I'm here to stay, can't see me running away
Don't wanna break this tie, I'm telling you why

You can take a little love, but if you're not giving
It'll never be worthwhile
You can take a little love, but if you're not giving
It'll never work out fine, oh no

Don't wanna make you cry, don't wanna tell you lies
Don't wanna bring you down, don't wanna treat you unkind
Just wanna make you mine and hear your laugh all the time
Don't wanna break this time, I'm telling you why

It's not funny when you're lonely
It's much better when you're living in harmony
With someone you're really diggin'
And you wanna give it all that you got

Things were bad before, so I walked out the door
I guess I'd soon found out what life is all about
Now I'm here to stay, can't see me running away
Don't wanna break this tie, I'm telling you why
