

Love Is the Strongest Emotion

Cliff Richard

One day away from you, I'm feeling
Something new,
The way you look at me says everything.
It's much too late to hide, what's building up inside,
Hot blood is rushing through my heart and soul.

Love is the strongest emotion,
No-one can stop what we do.
Love is the strongest emotion,
That you'll ever feel when your love is real.

I've been awake all night, my eyes are open wide,
I never dreamed you, you're no fantasy.
Oh, don't make me wait too long,
Cause you're the only one girl you change my wishes to reality

Love is the strongest emotion,
No-one can stop what we do.
Love is the strongest emotion,
That you'll ever feel when your love is real.

And I wanna touch, and I wanna feel,
What you do to me.
Cause nothing on earth can move me like you,
Come on baby show me cause I need to give my love to you.

I wanna touch, and I wanna feel,
What you do to me.
Cause, nothing on earth can move me like you,
Come on baby show me, cause I need to give my love.

Love is the strongest emotion,
No-one can stop what we do.
Love is the strongest emotion,
That you'll ever feel when you know your love is real.
