

She Makes Me Feel Like A Man

Cliff Richard

She looks at me
Like I'm the only one
Our hearts meet
She moves into mine

I lie there at night
Just hearing her breathing
I taste every breath that she takes
I'm her hero she says

But I'm not sure why
She makes me feel like a man
She puts a little bit of heaven in me
I'm so lucky to see her sweet face when I wake

She makes me feel like a man
Oh oh
I can't recall
That she asked me for anything

As long as I wake by her side
And when I hold her real close
Her heart's like a racing train
Racing with the beat of mine

But it don't mean a thing
Unless she's with me
She makes me feel like a man
And she puts a little bit of heaven in me

I'm so lucky to see her sweet face when I wake
She makes me feel like a man
I'm her hero she says
But I'm not sure why

She makes me feel like a man
And she puts a little bit of heaven in me
I'm so lucky to see her sweet face when I wake
She makes me feel like

She makes me feel like a man
And she puts a little bit of heaven in me
I'm so lucky to see her sweet face when I wake
She makes me feel like a man
