

Simplicity

Cliff Richard

Sunday morning - it's how you rise
Fuzzy slippers sleep in our eyes
Growin' flowers on the window sill
Yellow daffodils
Conversations - cup of joe
Funny pages in our happy clothes
Ain't got nobody that we got to be
Just you and me

All I know is it's a crazy world
So impossibly complicated girl
That no-one can say what's gonna happen today
All I gotta do is say my name
Every time I think that everybody's gone insane
Cause you know when you're holding me
It's simplicity
Simplicity

Television goin', need no sound
Same old yada yada goin' down
Same old story but a different day
Nothin' ever changes
Nothin's gone change
It's the pouring rain
It's the hurricane
It's the greedy - it's the needy
It's yes indeed no change

All I know is it's a crazy world
So impossibly complicated girl
That no-one can say what's gonna happen today
All you gotta do is say my name
Every time I think that everybody's gone insane
Cause you know girl when you're holding me
It's simplicity
It's simplicity
Girl it's simplicity
