Somethin' is Goin' On

You know it is You know it is

Cliff Richard

Yeah, yeah, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah I have seen you smile At the accidental touch of my hand A secret grin There's a covert light in your eyes When I walk in the room Yeah, I caught you Babe, you can't run from the truth You cannot tell me a lie 'Cause girl you have to show me why This is not our time When all the evidence is sayin' that you're wrong Somethin' is goin' on, yeah I have felt my heart skip a beat At the sound of your name I turn away You can read my bad poetry That I've tried to erase But it's written on my face I cannot run from the truth And I don't believe in lies But girl, you have to show me why This is not our time When all the evidence is sayin' that you're wrong Somethin' is goin' on On top of some mountain I'll scream it, I'll shout that I love you, you love me How can that be wrong? Somethin' is goin' on, yes it is Somethin' is goin' on Somethin' is I cannot run from the truth And I don't believe in lies But girl, you have to show me why This thing will not work When all the evidence is sayin' that you're wrong Hey girl, you have to show me why This is not our time When all the evidence is sayin' that you're wrong, yeah Somethin' is goin' on, yeah

Somethin' is goin' on Somethin' is goin' on You and me, babe

You know somethin' is goin'
Somethin' is, somethin' is Somethin's going on, somethin' is
How can that be wrong?

'Cause somethin' is, somethin' is Somethin' is goin' on 'Cause somethin' is goin' on
